VOL. XXVIII.

STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, DECEMBER 25, 1900. 9 A. M.

NO. 85

HUPPLE.

Milton Purdon was among his old friends here this week.

Mr. Anderso has rented a shop at Burgis and will move there about Jan. 1st.

Sweeney Morgan bought some fat hogs of George Wood at 4:35. John Robinson sold Morgan some lambs at 3c.

Dr. Hickle will enter school the 1st of January in Louisville. Preston Beck, of Wayne county, is looking for a farm in this county. Marshall Daniels, of Illinois, is visiting relatives here, and it is said that he has come after his intended.

B. W. Givens had his minnow bucket, with minnows in it, tied in the river during the dry weather and when the rains came and the water got too high for him to get it, he let it remain till the other day and he found the minnows all there, doing well and had grown lots during their 14 months confinement.

Corn is selling for $2 here now. Bill Huffman has sold his land, 30 acres, on Dix river, near here, to Bill Bland, for $850. Mrs. Mattie Hudson and husband have sold their interest in the White farm near here to James Swope for $75, and have gone to his home in Mexico. Joe Robinson has gone to see his brother, George, who is in Arizona for his health.

Resolutions of Respect.

WHEREAS, God in His infinite wisdom has seen proper to lay the cold hand of death upon our beloved townsmen, L. B. Adams, the father of two members of our order, it is in consequence thereof that we whose names are hereto annexed, are authorized by King Phillip Tribe No. 48, of Hustonville, Ky., do submit the following:

Resolved 1. As a tribe we regret to have been compelled to note the absence of our brothers, J. B. and A. J. Adams at our meetings on account of the illness and death of the aforesaid L. B. Adams, the beloved father of said Bros. Adams.

2. That as a tribe we do sincerely and truly sympathize with said brothers in this, the hour of their bereavement, and in order that they may find consolation, we direct them to look to Him "whose ways are mysterious and past finding out," feeling sure that this is the one way of finding solace and consolation in hours of trouble.

3. That it should be a source of pleasure and comfort to said brothers and family to know that both the religious and civil life of their father was an exemplary one and will be felt by those whom he came in contact with during his life; a life to be proud of.

A copy of the foregoing to be presented to Bros. Adams, spread upon the minutes and published in the county papers.

W. S. HUFFMAN,
CHAS. WHEELER, Com.
E. B. POWELL.

Mrs. Mina Hall, an old woman and her son, 16 years old, were murdered at Boone's Fork, Letcher county, on Nov. 13. Sol and Lige Flemings, brothers, were arrested. They were indicted by the recent grand jury. Saturday night a young man confessed to murdering Mrs. Hall and her son. He broke down, wept pitifully and among other things said: "I can bear it no longer. Don't you see the blood on my hands? I am guilty. I killed Mrs. Hall and her son for her money, $400, which I have in my pocket. I swore lies against Sol and Lige Flemings. They are innocent and should be released from the clutches of the law." Time and again he cried like a child all day long while he was being guarded. Many people believe he is only pretending, and that he is not crazy. The $400 was found in his pocket—an inside one and securely sewed. Sol and Lige Flemings, who have been proclaiming their innocence since the day of their arrest, are not guilty and will be released from the county jail.

HOW TO CURE CROUP.

Mr. R. Gray, who lives near Amenia, Dutchess county, N. Y., says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best medicine I have ever used. It is a fine children's remedy for croup and never fails to cure." When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough has developed, it will prevent the attack. This should be borne in mind and a bottle of the Cough Remedy kept at hand ready for instant use as soon as these symptoms appear. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

Them literary mugs, from wot I see, Missed a whole lot in not discovering me.

They might ha' found me in the nearest bar-room,

The real thing of a sporty "Dayid Harum."

Look at my nose! An' yet they goes way back,

To get a "Cyrano de Bergerac!"

A lame shoulder is usually caused by rheumatism of the muscles, and may be cured by a few applications of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For ale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

The Christmas turkey, not the Christmas conversation, should be stuffed with chestnuts.

LIBERTY.

The Liberty Academy is closed for Christmas.

Joe P. Wilkinson and his dolls are still in town.

Jack Shearen, who has had typhoid fever, is improving.

Miss Lillie Moore, who is attending school in Stanford, is at home for the holidays.

The W. C. T. U. ladies gave an oyster supper last night. It was followed by a Xmas tree.

There are nine candidates for county judge and 12 for jailer. Our rads all seem to want office.

Mr. Pat Whipp accompanied Miss Julia Stagg to Hustonville Sunday.

Miss Stagg is engaged as a teacher in the college at that place. Miss Amanda Stone, who has been taking music at the conservatory in Cincinnati, will spend the holidays with us. Winona Phillips is looking for a girl to give a nice Christmas present to Jas. Cowden, who has been on the sick list, we are glad to note is convalescing. We haven't learned whether his illness was caused from the recent departure of a certain young lady or not. Messrs. Richard Young and Robert Wayman, two of our popular young men, made a pleasant call over on Brush Creek a few evenings ago. They report an excellent time. M. K. Humphrey has just returned from a flying visit to Russell Springs. Rumor has it that Mr. Humphrey will not make more than one more trip.

CHURCH MATTERS.

The Methodist church is in control of 225 institutions of learning, which represent an investment of $130,000,000.

John D. Rockefeller, Jr., teaches a Bible class of 125 young men at the Fifth Avenue Baptist church Sunday School, New York City.

Since coming to Lancaster six months ago, from Vevay, Ind., the Rev. J. E. Woolford, of the Baptist church, has performed only one marriage ceremony, but has officiated at 17 funerals.

Friends of the late Dwight L. Moody have plans on foot for a monster religious revival to usher in the 20th century. The plan is to interest every branch of the Protestant church in all parts of the United States.

Rev. G. W. Young, field secretary of the Interdenominational Local Option Committee, will be in Stanford and address a mass meeting at the Presbyterian church Sunday night, Jan. 6th. He will spend several days in the county and will deliver addresses at three or four different points.

Finding themselves living in glass houses, the Northern press has let up on denunciations of lynchings in the South, but as a Southerner we must admit that our mobs are getting mighty keeless. Not long ago a mob at Jackson, Miss., discovered that its victim was blameless, and now another mob in the same State has killed an innocent Negro. We can't stop the rain, but there should be an end of allowing lynching law to fail alike on the just and the unjust.—Louisville Times.

NEWS NOTES.

Burglars made an unsuccessful attempt to rob a bank at Madison, O.

Natural gas has been struck on the farm of Elgin Price, near Lexington.

It is likely that the society 400 of New York City will be thinned out to 100.

Samuel M. Murphy, perhaps the wealthiest citizen of Tennessee, is dead, aged 75 years.

The American Express Company will distribute $50,000 in gold among its employees to-day.

One loaded shotgun. Three children of J. Ezell, at Panther. Two of them badly wounded.

A bank at Dalton City, Ill., was robbed. The burglars secured between $3,000 and $4,000.

David Brandenburg, an ex-Confederate and prominent citizen of Anderson county, is dead, aged 70.

A man who resides near Los Angeles, Cal., confessed to killing his mother and a sheep herder with an ax.

Gen. Gordon officially announces the dates of the next Confederate reunion at Memphis—May 28, 29 and 30, 1901.

John Kaiser, Jr., married only four weeks and out of a job, committed suicide by shooting himself in the heart in Louisville.

Capt. A. W. Bentley, the oldest Odd Fellow in the U. S., is dead at New Albany, Ind. He was 92 and his wife who survives is 85.

Porter Bros., of Bowling Green, are bankrupt. They owe $150,000. Louisville banks are in for $17,500. It's the biggest failure of the Park City.

W. H. Taylor, now representing the Southern Railway in Louisville, will be transferred to Atlanta with the title of assistant general passenger agent.

The Baldwin Locomotive Works at Philadelphia has a capacity of 1,200 locomotives a year. The capital employed is $10,000,000 and 8,500 hands are engaged.

John Happelman, night watchman for the Green River Asphalt Company at Eighth and Zane streets, was murdered and robbed at the company's plant in Louisville.

The annual report of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association of Louisville showed the past year to have been the most prosperous in its history.

Government engineers have made a report recommending an extensive plan of improvement for Big Sandy river, the total cost being estimated at $4,725,000.

State Senator Rouse, of Florida, was probably fatally injured during a quarrel with a lumberman. Edgar Nims, a brother-in-law of Rouse, was killed during the same row.

John D. Rockefeller has given $9,000,000 in all to the Chicago University and millions to other institutions. That is to say he has robbed Peter to pay Paul. Every time he makes a big gift he increases the price of coal oil.

Mrs. Mary F. Nolan, of Zanesville, O., who had been looking for her husband, from whom she separated 25 years ago, because of his propensity for drink, found him dead, and in a coffin, in the Napa (Cal.) Insane asylum.

The Kentucky State Board of Health has quarantined Greenup county against the world. This step is taken because of the prevalence of smallpox and the indifference of the civil authorities in that county to the disease. Trains must run through the county at the rate of 10 miles an hour, and its inhabitants can have no mail communication until the quarantine is lifted. Secretary McCormack, of the State Board of Health, says the whole State is threatened.

"T. H. Wolsam, Middlesboro, Ky." Those words written on a card were all that "John Owen" would reveal concerning himself as he went to the gallows for murder at Paris, Ill. Such a man is said to live in Tennessee, a few miles from Middlesboro. "Owen" tore up his life story and his secret went with him to the grave. He met death fearlessly, yet he need not have been hanged, for a short time before the execution "Owen" delivered to the sheriff enough morphine to have caused death.

What most people want is something mild and gentle, when in need of a physician. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets fill the bill to a dot. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

George W. Collins and Miss Ethel Singleton were married at Nathan Singleton's yesterday.

J. S. Spurlock, a widower of 34, and Miss Monie Ledford, 20, were married at B. F. Ledford's last week.

In the Flat Rock Creek vicinity, near Owensboro, Richard Moore, 16, and Maggie Toy, 14, were married.

Dee Merritt and Miss Nannie Lee Reynolds will be married at G. T. Reynolds' in the Southern End, tomorrow.

George Johnson, aged 21, and Miss Ada Bastin, 17, were married at the court house the other day by Judge Bailey.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Nicholasville has voted for electric lights.

Floyd Brice was shot from ambush near Pineville and probably fatally wounded.

Leveran Smith, aged 15, of Bell county, fell on his knife while running, and died from the effects.

Representative Boreing has recommended James M. Brown for the Rockhold, Whitley county, postoffice.

It is said that Charles H. Rodes will succeed Mr. Verkes as resident attorney for the Q. & C. R. R. in Boyle.

Rev. W. R. Davidson has been appointed postmaster at Ellisburg, Casey county, and T. A. Furkin at Keltner. Adair county.

Hons. Robert Franklin and Frank Peake are assisting the prosecution in the case of James Moberly for killing Wm. Morgan in Mercer.

The venerable Mrs. Churchill Yeager on yesterday celebrated her 94th birthday, most of her children taking dinner with her at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Samuel Shelton.—Advocate.

The second trial of James Moberly for killing William Morgan in Mercer resulted in a hung jury—four for conviction and eight for acquittal. The first jury stood six and six for conviction and acquittal.

Richmond wants the Federal court after the redistricting of the State is made and Gov. James B. McCreary, Judge A. R. Burnam and Hon. R. W. Miller have been appointed a committee to try to secure it.

In the Anderson circuit court at Lawrenceburg Judge William Carroll overruled a motion for a new trial in the case of the Commonwealth vs. Holly Strutton, who was recently convicted of the murder of Newton Searcy and given the death penalty. Strutton was sentenced to be hanged on March 15, 1901.

The case of City of Somerset vs. the Somerset Banking Company was reversed by the court of appeals on the cross appeal of the bank, the court holding that the levy against the bank for city taxes for certain years was void through a mistake of the city council, but that the mistake does not release the bank from liability as the city can now make the levy over again.

A Danville special says that John Baker, a white man living in the West End of the county, was shot and killed Friday night by Jim Dan Pope, a Negro. Pope surrendered to the sheriff by telephone and is in jail. According to the Negro's story Baker came to his home on an evil mission and was ordered away. He tried to enter the house to assault Pope and he shot him at short range with a heavily loaded gun.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., — DEC. 25, 1900.

E. C. WALTON.

OUR readers do not need to be told that Christmas is intended as a celebration of the birth of Christ. The exact date of the Savior's birth is not known, but from the beginning of the sixth century the Christian world has observed the 25th of December in memory of this event.

No other holiday is invested with such interest or is so generally observed as this one. With young and old in every part of the world and among every nation where Christ is known, Christmas is an occasion of joy and gladness and is celebrated by festivities and demonstrations of joy. The custom of giving gifts is a very old one and doubtless had its origin in the fact that in Christ, God made his greatest gift to man. From time immemorial it has been a time of family reunions and feasting and merrymaking. The use of rockets and fire crackers and blowing tin horns is perhaps a relic of the heathen custom of trying to frighten away devils and evil spirits and was brought over into Christian festivities by converts from heathen nations.

Doubtless the Christmas holidays upon which we are just entering will, like many which have preceded it, bring a great harvest of dissipation and crime. It is strange that in a Christian land, the week observed in honor of the birth of Christ should be made a carnival of all that is un-Christly. Of all the weeks of the year Christmas week records the greatest number of arrests, shootings, cuttings, killing and crimes of every degree. The Savior came to save people from these things. It is a sad commentary on human nature that the time observed in celebrating his birth should be made an occasion of riot and revelry.

But then Christmas only brings out of a fellow what is in him. Labor, business, social restrictions often suppress many things that are uncanny and keep the real character of the person out of view. Christmas is a time of joyous freedom, when restraints of every kind are, to a greater or less extent, laid aside. Then it is that a man seeks his level and gives vent to his true nature. If he is a Christian he will seek his enjoyment in the various seats of worship and in deeds of kindness that will honor his Master. If he is beastly and lustful he will patronize those places and participate in those revels which offer food for the dark passions of his being. If he is still part savage he will reveal the fact by burning gunpowder and making a hideous noise.

How should Christmas be spent? Certainly not in such a manner as to dishonor the Christ whose birth we celebrate. If the occasion is intelligently spent, we will carefully avoid those things which are out of harmony with the life and character of the Savior. We venture to suggest that if each one who reads these lines will open the week trying to make those around him happy, he will say at the close of the holidays that it was a week well spent. A bright smile, a pleasant word and a substantial remembrance of the sick and poor will make this last Christmas of the 19th century a good one.

A NEW JERSEY minister is inveighing against kissing under the mistletoe while a preacher in the Tar Heel State has denounced courting on the Sabbath. With all its pleasures prohibited in response to the demands of the fake reformers we could all be able to say with truth and zest, "I would not live always, I ask not to stay."

OUR good friend, Harry Giovannoli, of the Danville Advocate, is to be Commissioner Verkes' private secretary. If he makes as good a secretary as he has a newspaper man he will be a "cracker-jack" indeed.

THE Hopkins re-apportionment bill, which provides that the whole number of representatives under the new census shall be the same as the present number, has been agreed on by the House Census Committee. The number of inhabitants per member would be increased and this would reduce the representation in some of the States and increase it in others. The statement is made, however, that even if the House should pass the Hopkins bill without amendment, the Senators would never consent to a reduction of the number of the representatives from their several States. By this as it may, one thing seems settled. The membership of the House should not be increased. It is too big and unwieldy now, and the country can very easily get along without more Congressmen to work more private schemes and draw more money from the treasury.

AFTER congratulating Congress on showing more courage than usual in refusing to accede to the demands of ex-soldiers for the passage of a bill giving them practically a monopoly of the appointive offices, the Courier Journal expresses the sentiments of a very large majority of the people of the United States when it says that the man who fights in the armies of his country has our highest admiration and honor, but he makes a very different impression when he not only demands reward for his patriotism but demands that his right to reward shall be supreme and perpetual.

THE death of Congressman R. A. Wise, of Williamsburg, Va., removes a very troublesome individual. He made a number of races for Congress and no matter how large the majority of his opponent was, he always contested and his party always seated him. If the old couple: "Tis said by commentators, when 't other world we go, we'll follow the same handicraft we did here below!" be true, Wise will continue to be a troublesome customer, even if he has gone to Heaven. He'll want somebody else's seat.

IN the general stampede to get rid of the surplus and keep up war taxes in times of peace the republicans are planning all sorts of schemes of extravagance. One is the proposition to raise the salaries of the vice president and cabinet officers, whose pay is already more than their services are worth. The present crowd at least could be tired at very much less than they get if the law permitted such contracts to be made.

THE popular impressions of Alaska are erroneous. It is generally thought to be a frozen zone and that the soil is barren and worthless. This is a mistake. The sun is hot, the snow moistens and enriches the earth and the soil in the valleys is fertile and productive. Wheat, corn, oats, barley, buckwheat, flaxseed and a considerable variety of vegetables and forage plants can be successfully grown in many parts of the territory.

HOW soon are we forgot when we are dead. The Goebel Monument Committee seems to have forgotten the purpose of its organization, and poor Goebel dead less than a year. Let it awake, close the matter up and see that a suitable, if not a very pretentious monument be placed over the remains of the friend of the great common people.

A NEW JERSEY minister is inveighing against kissing under the mistletoe while a preacher in the Tar Heel State has denounced courting on the Sabbath. With all its pleasures prohibited in response to the demands of the fake reformers we could all be able to say with truth and zest, "I would not live always, I ask not to stay."

THIS AND THAT.

An unsuccessful attempt was made to rob the Deposit Bank at Sonora.

William R. Rogers was shot and seriously injured by Samuel Garrison at Lebanon Junction.

There seems to be little doubt about Judge James Denton, of Somerset, getting the collectorship of this district.

It is said that Bryan will answer Cleveland's criticisms of the democratic party at the annual banquet of the W. J. Bryan League, of Chicago, on January 8.

BECAUSE Congress failed to pass the army bill before the holidays the plans for bringing home from the Philippines soldiers whose terms have expired have been upset. The War Department says less than 60,000 men in the field will seriously endanger United States interests.

TWO men were killed and two wounded at Fariston, Laurel county. Four of the Sizemores on one side, and a man named Young and Henry Barrett on the other, engaged in the fight. Young was killed instantly, and the brains of one of the Sizemores were shot out, while two more Sizemores were probably fatally wounded. There had been trouble between them for years. They were all from Clay county.

THE Royal Insurance Co. paid Mr. Ed Hubbard $550 for his loss of a few weeks ago. He held a policy of $600.

H. B. BOONE'S house was entered the other night and his wife's pocket-book containing about $4 was taken.

J. B. CAMENISCH and wife have the sympathy of their friends in the loss of their six-months-old son. The little thing had never been strong.

BRIGHT'S School-house, near Hubbie, burned Friday night. It is believed that a tramp, who was seen near it that afternoon, started the fire.

BIG TURKEYS.—Mrs. Samuel M. Owens sold a pair of turkeys the other day that weighed 56 pounds. They must have been kin to ostriches.

THOSE knowing themselves indebted to me will please call and settle before Jan. 1st. All accounts due first of each month. W. C. Greening, Hustonville.

DURING J. K. Christian's turkey slaughter here he killed 8,300 of those birds, for which he paid $6,600. He paid out $400 for labor. The price for picking was 3c each.

CONTEST tonight.

SHOOTING.—Forest Hauford gave himself up to Jailer DeBord early this morning, saying he had shot Jim Tall, also colored. The wound is a very slight one.

SOME of the candidates for county offices who were singing loudest for a primary are seeing the error of their way and are "softening." We trust enough of them will come to their senses before January court to decide against that dangerous way of making a ticket.

THE following pupils of the 4th and 5th grade of the McKinney school made an average of 90 and over for the term, which closed Friday: Louie Davidson, Eric Davidson, Bertha Davidson, Florence Epperson, Roy Gooch, Grace Gooch, Kathryn Hall, James Hall, Willie Humphrey, Pearl Mobley, Frank Mobley, Amelia McKinney, Howard Owens, Bernice Owens, Amelia Riffe, Ruth Tanner and Ollie Crow Vanhook. Miss Kate Blain taught the above grades.

W. R. Smith's Commercial College, Lexington, Ky., is the place to educate for profit to get a living and become useful. A good education is an imperishable capital, a grand legacy that will last as long as man exists. Young men should venture into business for himself, attempt to take charge of that of another, without a business training. Prof. W. R. Smith has been the well known president of the Commercial College of Kentucky University, Lexington, Ky., for 17 years, during which time he has educated thousands of young people for positions of honor and trust. Prof. Smith makes a specialty of imparting to young and middle aged people a practical education, as Bookkeeping, Shorthand, Typewriting, Telegraphy, Sign language, etc. The diploma from Kentucky University under seal. At no time in the history of the country has there been such a demand for educated young men as now. The South is rising now by far than ever before. More factories are now going up and new capital coming from the North and East seeking investment. For full particulars of this famous college, address only Prof. W. R. Smith, Lexington, Ky.

LANCASTER COURT.—There were about 200 cattle on the Lancaster market, but not many of them changed hands. The best price realized was 4½c for a few extra good yearlings. Heifers sold at 3 to 3½c; butcher cattle 2 to 3c. Mules were in demand at $80 to $140. Horses were dull.

The noted Kentucky stallion, George Wilkes, 2:22, never sired a 2:10 performer, but his descendants are numerous in the select circle. His sons have sired 82 and his daughters produced seven; his grandsons sired 87, and dams by sons produced 37; his daughters produced the sires of 12 and the dams of six; his great-grandsons produced three and daughters by sons produced the sires of nine; his grand-daughters produced sires of two, and grandsons sired the dams of five, while six others are descended from him. George Wilkes is represented in the 2:10 list by nearly 250 of his descendants.

Your Uncle Stephen Grover Cleveland paused in his pursuit of wild ducks long enough to write a few lines to the Philadelphia Post on "The Plight of the Democracy and the Remedy." The article has many wise and timely thoughts, but when the ex-president winds up with the suggestion to give the people a chance, the equines, all cunctinate, because they know that for four or five years he has been siding with a party that never gives the masses a chance when the classes put in a claim. Mr. Cleveland may be very honest and he may think his views entitled to superior respect, but if it is all the same to him he can keep on hunting ducks and let those who fight the battles for democracy make the suggestions as to its conduct and future.—Lexington Democrat.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED by medical application to the ear, except the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is obstructed you have a ringing sound in the inner ear, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by earache, which is nothing but an enlarged condition of the Eustachian tube.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by earache) that can not be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.
